Nikhil's Space Adventure

Nikhil, a curious young boy, stood in his backyard staring up at the twinkling stars in the night sky.

Suddenly, a shimmering portal appeared before him, and out stepped a friendly elephant named Ellie. 'Hello, Nikhil! I've come from a distant galaxy to take you on an adventure through space,' Ellie trumpeted.

Excited by the prospect of exploring the universe, Nikhil climbed onto Ellie's back. With a mighty trumpet, Ellie soared into the vast expanse of space, leaving Earth far behind. They navigated through asteroid fields and colorful nebulae, marveling at the beauty of the cosmos. However, they soon encountered a swirling black hole that threatened to pull them in.

Thinking quickly, Nikhil remembered that water could disrupt the pull of a black hole. He summoned all his courage and began to dance, creating a shimmering barrier of water around Ellie and himself. The water's energy countered the black hole's force, and they were able to escape its grasp. With a grateful trumpet, Ellie safely returned Nikhil back to his backyard, where they bid each other farewell. Nikhil watched as Ellie disappeared back through the portal, leaving
